

Lesson Name Topic:	Sacagawea Sacagawea coins for end of year celebration
Objectives: Essential Understandings Internal/ External Assets addressed	Students will learn about Sacagawea and connect her strong leadership characteristics to their own successes during the year Internal Commitment to Learning Positive Values Social and Cultural Competence Positive Identity External Support Empowerment Constructive Use of Time
Standards or language proficiency descriptors: World readiness standards	Productive language standards: Produce learned words and phrases about significant plants and gathering and share with others Culture-interact with cultural competence and understanding Connections
Words of the week STEPS to success Guiding Questions: Signs of cultural growth/ Measurable student outcomes:	Leader <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will log on online and listen to a presentation about Sacagawea • Students will learn about her leadership • Students will learn about the Sacagawea coin and meet the model who is on the coin • Students will understand the significance of receiving the coin at the end of their school year How was Randy'L Teton picked to be the face of Sacagawea? Students learn about Sacagawea and the connection of leadership to their own lives
SEL connections	Self and Social Awareness: Awareness of cultures, languages, history and identities Self and Social Management: Opportunity to grow/learn; communicate with others